FACULTY FEEDBACK FORM

Faculty feedback form is a survey that is used to collect feedback from faculty about their experiences at an educational institution. The form includes questions about the faculty's satisfaction with the institution's curriculum, instruction, facilities, and overall environment.

Faculty feedback is important because it can help the institution to improve the quality of education and services it provides to its students. The feedback form can be used to identify areas where the institution is excelling and areas where improvement is needed. This form was filled by Director, Regional center coordinator associate professor, assistant professor contractual and others faculty members

OVERALL RATING OF UNIVERSITY AND FEEDBACK.
32 responses

The pie chart above shows that the majority of students (90.7%) rated the university as excellent or good. This suggests that the students are generally satisfied with the university. This suggests that the university is meeting the expectations of its faculty. However, the university could continue to improve its reputation by:

- Maintaining its high academic standards.

- Offering new and innovative courses and programs.

- Creating a more diverse and inclusive environment.
- Providing students with even more resources and support.
