About the University:

U.P. Rajarshi Tandon Open University has been established through the UP Act No. 10 of 1999 as passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature. This University was named after the name of Bharat Ratna Rajarshi Purushottam Das Tandon, an illustrious son of Mother India who made great sacrifices for Independence and dedicated himself to the cause of Hindi as a national language. The jurisdiction of the University is across the State of Uttar Pradesh. The university has carved a niche for itself among the premier academic institution of open learning and distance education. It has witnessed a very rapid expansion of its activities in various spheres of education. This University conducts its academic activities through a diversity of means of distance and continuing education, and function in co-operation with the existing Universities, colleges and institution of higher learning, and makes full use of the infrastructure of these organizations. The courses offered by UPRTOU are recognized by the joint committee of UGC-AICTE and DEC. The University offers wide range of educational programmes related to general education, training and extension work through open and distance learning. The University started functioning from the session 1999-2000 with 3344 distance learners. In the current session i.e. session 2016-2017 more than 50,000 distance learners were enrolled for 82 programmes at more than 650 study centers located in different parts of the state of Uttar Pradesh. These study centers are supervised by our 10 regional centers situated in Lucknow, Varanashi, Bareilly, Gorakhpur, Agra, Meerut, Gaziabad, Kanpur, Jhansi and Allahabad. The head quarter of the university is at Shantipuram Sector-F, Phaphamau, Allahabad equipped with good infrastructure facility like Buildings Library, Wi-Fi network campus etc.

About Allahabad :

It is in the North Indian state of Uttar Pradesh, Allahabad is one of the fastest growing cities in India at present. It is located 205 kilometres (127mi) south of the state capital, Lucknow. It is one of four sites of the mass Hindu pilgrimage Kumbh Mela, the others being Haridwar, Ujjain and Nashik. It has a position of importance in Hindu scriptures for it is situated at Triveni Sangam, the confluence of the holy rivers Ganges, Yamuna and Sarasvati river. Hindi, Urdu and English are the languages that are spoken in Allahabad. The dialect of Hindi spoken in Allahabad is Awadhi, although Khariboli is most commonly used in the city area. In the eastern non-doaba part of Allahabad district Bagheli dialect is more common. Bengali and Punjabi are also spoken in some quarters. All major religions are practiced in Allahabad. Major tourist destinations are Anand Bhawan, Chandra Shekher Azad Park, Allahabad Museum, Khusaro Bagh, Akbar, Fort, Nag Basuki Temple, All Saint Cathedral Church, High Court etc.
